STARS Success Yourself® Workshop in Benakeio Phytopathological Institute

Another dynamic two-day Professional Development Workshop «STARS Success Yourself®» was implemented by knowl Social Enterprise to 16 executives of the Benakeio Phytopathological Institute, on 27 and 28 March 2015. Read More

The workshop trained the trainees on productive behaviors and communication skills on coaching in order to maintain a positive status of cooperation amongst intradepartmental and inter-sectoral units. Additionally, they learned to use productively the strengths based approach in order to promote the individual and collective development of the organization.

The educational experience was enriched due to the active participation and substantial contribution of the participants via practical examples and sharing information from their daily experiences.

Indicatively, we present comments which were received by trainees, and which we consider to be representative of the general assessment:

"Excellent workshop for personal/professional development. New starting point for a pro»

"I won knowledge and professional troubleshooting in human resources management"

"I would like to thank all the instructors of your company for the different perspective that helped me develop in my work environment in relation to human resources and my partners"
